

Record of Secondary Containment Drainage

This record should be completed when accumulated precipitation from secondary containment areas is drained into a storm drain or into an open watercourse, lake, or pond. The bypass valve should normally be sealed in the closed position and only opened and resealed following drainage under responsible supervision.

Date	Area	Presence of Oil	Time Started	Time Finished	Signature